

After reviewing the test by the arrl and others I find that BPL noise is higher than signals put out by ham radio, therefore we are unable to provide the necessary communications during emergency situations. I feel that allowing BPL will be a detriment to communications within the ham bands and make our organization unable to complete their assigned tasks under the new Homeland Security Act.